

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
Editors	11
1 Introduction: Why? Explanations for drug use and drug dealing in social drug research Dirk J. Korf, Julie Tieberghien & Zsuzsa Kaló	13
2 Controlling drugs in Europe: the first collaboration attempts Rafaela de Quadros Rigoni	25
3 NPS use motivations from the perspective of users and experts Zsuzsa Kaló, Zsolt Demetrovics & Katalin Felvinczi	41
4 Emotional mapping: towards a geographical explanation of drug use Luise Klaus & Mélina Germes	57
5 'I have no clue' – a qualitative study on crack cocaine use in Frankfurt, Germany Bernd Wersé & Lukas Sarvari	75
6 On aging cannabis users: a welfare economics analysis Marco Rossi	91
7 Exploring and (re)negotiating the question of (not) being: narrative identity constructions of people who use illegal drugs Michelle Van Impe	107
8 Buyer motives for sourcing illegal drugs from 'drop-off' delivery dealers Thomas Friis Søgaard	123
9 From ancient organic to the newest synth: building trust in drug user communities Ximene Rêgo, Jakub Greń & Olga S. Cruz	137

10 Medicinal cannabis use: a fuzzy concept? Frédérique Bawin	155
11 In search of the ideal drug Alfred Springer	171
Contributors	187