
Contents

Preface

Introduction
Emma K. Massey, Frederike Ambagtsheer, Franco Citterio, Willem Weimar 11

The role of ethics in the early history of transplantation
Michael A. Bos 15

1. Ethical, Legal and Cultural Aspects

Summary of Workshop 2: ‘Common problems and national approaches to death and deceased donation’
Thomas Gutmann & Medard Hilhorst 25

Common problems and national approaches to death and deceased donation: the Italian approach
Marco Vergano & Francesca Baroncelli 27

Organ transplantation and assisted dying: where, when, how and why?
Deborah Ummel & Mélanie Vachon 32

Pre-mortem interventions facilitating organ retrieval: the new Swiss legal framework
Mélanie Levy 37

Age and generational relations in organ donation: an emerging field of empirical research and ethical controversy
Mark Schweda & Sabine Wöhlke 44

Renal transplantation in the Middle East: challenges and opportunities
Ala A. Ali 52

Panorama of kidney transplantation in Algeria
Khadidja Habchi, Ali Benziane, Mohamed Laib, Aldjia Lamri & Messaoud Saidani 57

2. Living Donation

Informing the living donor: practical approaches to moral dilemmas
Lisa Burnapp 61

The impact of volunteers on unspecified living kidney donation in the UK Christopher Burns-Cox, Paul van den Bosch, Paul Gibbs, Jan Shorrocks & Bob Wiggins	66
---	----

Live donor autonomy and professional protectionism; inconsistency in medical aspects of live donor evaluation Ian D. Dittmer	69
---	----

Is it ethical to offer priority points to compatible pairs participating in kidney exchange programs? Marie-Chantal Fortin	75
---	----

The ethics of shifting the US framework of living kidney donation from a disincentive to an incentive based model Giuliano Testa, Steven Hays & Hoylan T. Fernandez	82
--	----

3. Psychological Aspects

Summary of Workshop 5: 'Psychosocial evaluation, support and education of living organ candidates' Inês Mega & Emma Massey	89
---	----

The role of an independent living donor advocate: discussion of implementation options for the European setting Rebecca E. Hays	91
--	----

Psychosocial profile of potential kidney recipients and their living non-related donors Susana M. Bayardo, Silvia R. Groppa, Cora Giordani, Cesar Mombelli, Guillermo Rosa Diez & Nora Imperiali	98
--	----

Quality of Life comparison between haemodialysis patients and expanded criteria kidney transplants Chalini Lankage, Hannah-May Elmasry, Hannah Maple, Nizam Mamode & Nicos Kessar	105
--	-----

Using the Canadian code of ethics for psychologists to determine the acceptability of organ donation following medical assistance to die Marie Achille	113
---	-----

4. Pediatric Donation and Transplantation

Summary of Workshop 4: 'Pediatric donation and transplantation' Marion Siebelink & Karl-Leo Schwering	125
---	-----

Impact of living transplantation on family dynamics Karl-Leo Schwering, Kristof Thys, Laure Rougier, Isabelle Aujoulat	127
--	-----

Under what conditions should minors be considered as potential hematopoietic stem cell donors: a review of guidance documents Miha Orazem & Kristof Thys	129
--	-----

Recent changes in child-organ donation in the UK & what next Joe Brierley	138
---	-----

5. Organ Trade

Summary of Workshop 6: 'Understanding the human organ trade?' Michael A. Bos	145
--	-----

A critical analysis of organ 'trafficking' and the prevailing law enforcement response Seán Columb	149
--	-----

Illegal transplants and medical responsibility under the light of law and ethics Athina Koufou	155
--	-----

Current status of organ harvesting from prisoners in China Huige Li	161
---	-----

Neo-cannibalism and ISIS: organs and tissue trafficking during times of political conflict and war Nancy Scheper-Hughes	166
---	-----

6. Deceased Donation

Summary of Workshop 1: 'Clinical research in deceased donation: which medical, ethical, legal and societal aspects have to be taken into account?' Rutger Ploeg & Bernadette Haase	177
--	-----

Directed deceased donation: beyond the impartial allocation dogma Medard Hilhorst	182
---	-----

Keeping consent in context: what is consent to deceased donation and from whom do we need it? David Shaw	190
--	-----

Influence of annual educational meetings with ICU specialists on rates of deceased donation Eva Šteina & Janis Jushinskis	197
---	-----

7. Public Issues & Communication

Summary of Workshop 3: 'Public issues in organ donation and transplantation' David Rodríguez-Arias	203
--	-----

An exploration of experiences in campaigns on organ donation in The Netherlands
Jeantine M. M. P. J. Reiger-van de Wijdeven 205

Partnerships between media and ethics: students peer-to-peer campaigns for organ donation
Mihaela Frunză & Ariana Guga 213

Undergraduate healthcare students' knowledge toward organ donation:
a survey in an Italian university
Lisa Giovannini, Francesco Fontana, Marika Massari & Gianni Cappelli 222

Shifts in public perceptions of deceased organ donation in Denmark:
lessons learned about public acceptability
Klaus L. Hoeyer 231

Analysis of studies on communication in organ donation and transplantation
*Marie Lingemann, Danica Avsec, Bernarda Logar Zakrajšek
& Thomas Breidenbach* 237

FOEDUS Work Package 7 – international approach in communication
*Thomas Breidenbach, Marie Lingemann, Bernarda Logar Zakrajšek
& Danica Avsec* 245

Corresponding Authors 251

Index of Authors 254