

Contents

Acknowledgments	7
Editors	9
1 Preface: Drug normalisation is reflexive Shane Blackman	11
2 Introduction: Normalised drug using landscapes across Europe James Morgan, Thomas Friis Søgaard & Alfred Uhl	16
3 Navigating norms and drug use: Normalisation and neutralisation as converging perspectives James Morgan & Trevor Bennett	25
4 Exploring the normalisation of image and performance enhancing drugs (IPEDs) in British gyms and its connectivity with social media Luke A. Turnock & Nick Gibbs	40
5 ‘That’s how drug scene was back in the days’ – On the temporary de-normalisation of harm reduction measures and public life for people who use drugs heavily during the COVID-19 pandemic Bernd Werse & Luise Klaus	60
6 The normalisation of illicit drug use admissions among British politicians: A narrative perspective Liviu Alexandrescu	76
7 Revisiting the normalisation thesis in the Polish context over the past 20 years Greg Los, Maria Plucinska & Artur Malczewski	93
8 Different-paced normalisation: Cannabis social worlds in non-liberalised contexts Michał Wanke	110

9 Normalised drug use heterotopias in the 21 st century Kostas Skliamis	127
10 Policy normalisation of drug use – opportunity or cultural discomfort? Alfred Springer	141
Contributors	161