

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Editors	9
1 Old and new: Persistence, revival and innovation in European drug issues	11
Dirk J. Korf
2 Reassessing the gateway theory and its implications for drug policy	17
Alfred Uhl & Ludwig Kraus
3 Harm reduction in European prisons: Looking for champions and ways to put evidence-based approaches into practice	34
Heino Stöver, Rick Lines & Katja Thane
4 Exploring retail-level drug distribution: Social supply, 'real' dealers and the user/dealer interface.....	50
Garfield (Gary) Potter
5 Psychedelic generations: Similarities and differences of socio-cultural factors related to historic & contemporary use of LSD and other hallucinogenic drugs.....	75
Susanna Prepeliczay
6 Arriving at the party early? An exploration of the early onset use of ecstasy and cocaine in Northern Ireland	98
Patrick McCrystal
7 New methods – old problems: A practical and philosophical analysis of participatory approaches to qualitative drugs research	112
Alastair Roy
8 Researching 'new' heroin users in Ireland: An ethno-epidemiological approach	128
Paula Mayock, Jennifer Cronly & Michael Clatts
List of contributors	151