

Contents

Contents:	3
Expanded Contents: Chapter Subheadings	4
Tables and Figures (Illustrations)	13
Acknowledgements	18
About the Author	19
Preface	21
Warning – Disclaimer	26
Introduction	27
Chapter 1 You Already Know What Adult Development Is!	38
Chapter 2 What is Your Hypothesis as You Listen?	53
Chapter 3 Where is Your Client’s Center of Gravity?	68
Chapter 4 From Active to Hypothesis-Based Listening	93
Chapter 5 How Spread Out Between Risk and Potential is Your Client?
Making Finer Distinctions between Stages	119
Chapter 6 How to Understand Developmental Conflict	137
Chapter 7 The Structure of Powerful Conversations:
How to Listen between the Lines	181
Chapter 8 How to Test Your Developmental Knowledge	212
Chapter 9 What it All Means for Coaching:
Developmental Foundations Spelled Out for Practice	261
Chapter 10 Part One: Need Press Analysis	314
Part Two: Three Coaching and Mentoring Case Studies	323
Chapter 11 Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics	344
Chapter 12 An inkling of Capability Management	356
Epilogue	373
List of Appendices	376
Appendix A: Exercises	377
Appendix B: Selected Answers to Exercises	389
Appendix C: Social-Emotional Interview Coding Sheet	396
Appendix D: Constructive Developmental Framework (CDF)	397
Appendix E: Addendum to Ch.11 Part A: Team Dynamics	403
Part B: What-ifs, Two and Three Person Teams	435
Appendix F: Acronyms & Abbreviations	446
Appendix G: Glossary	448
Appendix H: Selected Bibliography	455
Appendix I: Index	458
Appendix J: Changes in 3 rd and 4 th Editions	459
Publications	460

Expanded Contents: Chapter Subheadings
I	Introduction	27
27	Three models of helping
28	The Expertise Model
28	The Doctor-Patient Model
29	The Process Consultation (PC) Model
30	Deepening the third model of helping developmentally
31	The multi-dimensionality of the client's (and consultant's) process
31	Two dimensions of developmental assessment
32	What is Developmentally Deepened Process Consultation?
33	Gist of volume 1
34	Structure of this volume
35	Constructive Developmental Framework (CDF)
36	Using volume 1 in Learning and Teaching
Ch.1	You Already Know What Adult Development Is!	38
39	The hidden dimension of adult development
41	The adult development journey
42	Changing orientations across adult stages
42	Meaning making
43	View of others and level of self-insight across the adult stages
45	The reality of adult developmental attainment
46	Cognitive profile
46	Intermediate summary
47	The full scope of developmental assessments
47	Horizontal and vertical assessments
50	Constructive Developmental Framework (CDF)
51	CDF Components deliver empirical evidence about clients
52	Practice reflections
Ch.2	What is Your Hypothesis as You Listen?	52
54	Developmental listening
55	Hypothesis, Probe, Content, Structure, Stage, Context, Levels, Devil's Advocate
57	Levels
57	Example 1a: Level S-2
58	Example 1b: Level S-2
59	Acting from S-2
60	Movement toward stage 3 (S-3)
60	Levels revisited
61	Example 1a: Levels revisited
61	Counter hypotheses - rereading example 1a
61	Playing devil's advocate regarding counter-hypothesis #1 (at or close to S-3)
62	Playing devil's advocate regarding counter-hypothesis #2 (S-4)
63	Example 1c: Additional probes
64	Summary of Stage S-2
66	Chapter 2 summary
67	Practice reflections
Ch.3	Where is Your Client's Center of Gravity?	68
69	The inter-developmental nature of developmental interventions
71	The journey from S-3 to S-4
72	Example 2a: S-3 Client
73	Example 2b: S-3 Coach
74	Summary of stage S-3

	Chapter Subheadings
76	Moving to stage S-4
77	Developmental Risks
78	Example of 3a: S-4
79	Example of 3b: S-3 Counter Example
80	Summary of stage 4
81	Limitations of an S-4 practitioner & Espousal by S-4 of S-5
82	The journey to S-5
83	Loss of self
83	Stage 5 described
85	Espousal of S-5 (by S-5(4))
85	Example 4a: Espousal by S-4 speaker
86	Example 4b: Functioning close to S-5
88	The journey so far
89	Development beyond S-5
90	Chapter 3 Summary
90	Typical helping issues between S-2 to S-5
90	Stage 2: Clients can only hold a single perspective, their own
91	Stage 3: Clients define themselves by the expectations of physical and/or internalized others
91	Stage 4: Clients define themselves...unique, history-derived individuality...their integrity
91	Stage 5: Clients have transcended their idiosyncratic life history, career successes and failures and, no longer identified with a particular part of themselves, can “lead” others
92	Practice reflections
Ch.4	From Active to Hypothesis-Based Listening	93
94	A first definition of active listening (ICF Definition)
94	Active Listening (ICF Definition)
95	Three important issues in active listening
96-8	(96) A. Coaching level, (97) B. Epistemology, (98) C. Developmental balance
100	Summary of comments on the ICF definition
100	Listening as hypothesis formulation and testing
101	The inevitability and ubiquity of hypothesis formulation
101	The need for a conceptual framework
102	Intermediate summary
102	Active listening as the testing of developmental hypotheses
103	Developmental prompts
104	The nature of probing in developmental interviews
106	Making hypothesis formulation conscious
106	Constraining clients’ agenda by way of prompts
108	How to use prompts
109	Requirements of developmental interviewing summarized
110	Contributions of developmental interviewing to interventional practice
110	Four important strategies
110	1. Never interrupt the client’s flow of thought
111	2. Empty yourself...especially of internalized others...
111	3. Don’t feel shy...
112	4. You cannot repair what you have failed to do in the interview itself when evaluating ...
112	An amplified definition of active listening
113	Amplified definition of active listening as developmental listening
113	Developmental listening
114	Coaching research
115	Chapter 4 Summary
115	Frame of Reference

	Chapter Subheadings
115	Developmental coaching process
116	Prompt: Control
116	Projective Test
116	Record the interview
116	Chapter highlights
117	Client Benefits
117	Developmentally Deepened Consultation
1q18	Practice reflections
Ch.5	How Spread Out Between Risk and Potential is Your Client?: Making Finer Distinctions between Stages	119
120	A vocabulary for distinctions
121	Trajectory of social-emotional stages
122	Subject-Object Relations (Part 1) and Center of Gravity
123	Risk and Potential
123	Distribution of stages
124	Risk-Clarity Potential (RCP) Index
129	Developmental spread
130	People are not their developmental scores - nor even stages!
131	Feedback to client
132	Coaching and Feedback
133	Chapter 5 summary
134	How to summarize a multi-level “raw score” RCP down to a 3-level “rated” RCP
135	Practice reflections
Ch.6	How to Understand Developmental Conflict	136
138	Range of stages
139	Subject-Object Relations (Part 2)
141	From S-2 to S-3: Discovering yourself as a social being
143	Summary of S-2 - + - Highlights of the journey to Stage 3
145	Developmental conflict
147	Conflict resolution - + - Reciprocal relationship
148	Internalized others
150	Mental growth
152	Summary of the journey from S-2 to S-3
153	The journey from S-3 to S-4
155	Some highlights of S-3
156	Summary of Stage 3 - + - Highlights of the journey to Stage 4
157	Distinction between physical others, internalized others, and “myself”
159	Developmental risk
161	But what has the speaker really discovered about herself?
162	A Theory of self
163	Summary of the journey to Stage 4
164	Developmental stance
166	The S-4 stance
168	Stage 4 (Self-authored) summary
169	Moving beyond Stage 4
172	A foothold in S-5 (Self-aware)
177	Summary of Stage 5 (Self-aware) - + - Journey beyond Stage 5 (Self-aware)
179	Chapter 6 Summary
180	Practice reflections

	Chapter Subheadings
Ch.7	The Structure of Powerful Conversations: How to Listen between the Lines	181
182	Introduction to semi-structured interviewing
183	Conversations/Interviews/Interventions/Assessments
184	Developmental process consultation
187	Paying attention to the interviewer's process
187	Interviewing as a method of assessment
188	Three Generic Intervention Processes
189	1. Focusing attention
189	Guide questions and Probe questions
190	"Why?" questions
190	Developmental interviewing/developmental listening: the same thing
191	2. Interpretation
191	First pass hypothesis and second pass hypothesis
192	3. Enactment
192	4. Unlearning what we know so well
193	Critique: ICF core competencies (C: Communicating Effectively; D: Facilitating Learning/Results)
194	Client's train of thought/flow of consciousness
195	Structured interviewing as a model of powerful conversations
196	Elementary principles of developmental interviewing
197	Summary of developmental interviewing
197	Two examples of semi-structured interviewing
198	Interviewing example #1
199	Critique of interviewing example #1 (i.e., How not to interview)
201	Interviewing example #2
202	Critique of example #2: Interviewing (gone wrong)
202	What is the interviewer actually doing?
205	Turning our attention to the client: What did the interview reveal?
205	Empirical evidence
208	Range
208	Full length interviews vs. fragments (bits)
210	Summary of developmental listening
210	Overview of characteristics of Social-Emotional levels S-2 to S-5
211	Practice reflections
Ch.8	How to Test Your Developmental Knowledge	212
213	Actual interviewing
213	Social-Emotional Interview (ED)
213	Mental space
214	The Three Houses (Social Emotional ED) Interviews
215	Three Houses Interviews
215	The Three Houses Differentiated according to Centers of Gravity
217	Looking at an extended social-emotional interview fragment
218	Interview excerpt
221	The five steps of interviewing
224	Systematic critique of an actual interview
233	Why is this a good question?
235	Strengths and failings of the interviewer
236	Evaluation (Scoring the interview): Coding sheet format
238	Over-scoring (Over-coding)
239	How to Over-score
239	(Completed) Coding sheet for social-emotional interviews: [Actual interview example using prompt]

	Chapter Subheadings
242	Scored Stages Weighting (See Appendix C)
243	Potential center of gravity shift
243	How, under these circumstances, would we describe the developmental profile (S-4/3{3:5:5})?
244	Moving on: Progressing to a new center of gravity
244	Coaching and/or Mentoring (of this client/coach)
245	Recommendations to mentor/coach
245	Mentoring clients with spirituality concerns
246	Overview of characteristics of Social-Emotional levels S-2 to S-5
247	Table of Questions to ask yourself when interviewing and scoring S-E levels S-2 to S-5
255	Comparison of Interviewer's and Reviewer's Questions re Table 8.6
258	Chapter 8 Summary
259	Capability Management
260	Practice reflections
Ch.9	What it All Means for Coaching: Developmental Foundations Spelled Out for Practice	261
264	Process consultation
265	Section One: Developmental Ideas and Practices this volume teaches
265	Section one: Some highlights of what we have learned
265	The Coaching Industry and Coaching Research
266	Development
267	Center of Gravity (COG) and Frame of Reference (FoR)
268	Developmental differences, advances, and measurement
269	Complementary developmental markers and methods
269	Section Two: Developmental coaching foundations
269	Coaching Level
269	Stage Spreads s. Coaching Capability Levels
270	Three distinct coaching levels
270	Constructivist-developmental hypothesis
270	Caveat: "S4" & "S5" Coaches and Coaching Capability
271	Seven coaching research hypotheses: Foundational hypotheses & Corollary (derived) hypotheses
272	Coaching levels
272	A. Instrumental coaching (S-2)
272	Reasons why S-2 cannot coach
273	B. Other-dependent coaching (S-3)
274	Coaching capabilities of S-3 individuals
274	S3 Coaches' Coaching Capability and the S3 Stage Spreads
276	Limitations of S3 coaches and consultants
276	C. Self-authored coaching (S-4)
277	S-4 Status
278	Coach education S-4: Critical thinking and hypothesis testing
279	Clarification: "S-4" and S5/4 Coaches and Coaching Capability
279	D. Self-aware coaching (S-5) (S-5/4) vs. Stage S-5 Coaching
281	Ethical thinking
282	Learning to think developmentally
284	Self-aware coaching's ethical obligations
285	S-5 abstract (Main Stage S-5)
285	S5/4 Limitations as a Coach
286	Summary of Section Two
287	Coaching level characteristics and predicted coaching effect
288	Intersection of vertical and horizontal developmental dimensions

	Chapter Subheadings
289	Do No Harm
290	Developmental Risk-Potential Balance Achieved (DBA)
290	Section Three: Benefits of the Developmental Approach for the Client
290	Structural benefits
290	Finding a coach at a developmental stage above your own
290	Developmental coaching - a major re-orientation for clients
290	(1) What to expect of developmental coaches
291	The flow of developmental coaching
292	The client's frame of reference
293	Two contracts
294	Data management
294	Double Database
294	(1) Anonymous Database
294	(2) How to make use of developmental coaching
295	(3) What to require of oneself as a client in developmental coaching
295	(4) How to help yourself by getting your coach mentored developmentally
296	Section Four: The contribution of developmental coaching
297	Contribution made by developmental coaching theory: Seven hypotheses
298	Developmental Coaching Foundations – as discussed in section 2
298	Hypothesis I: Coach population distribution
299	Hypothesis II: Coach adult-developmental attainment
300	Hypothesis III: Coach education is required
302	Hypothesis IV: Ethical responsibility
302	Hypothesis V: Coach Education
303	Hypothesis VI: Developmental mentoring of coaches
304	Hypothesis VII: Coach certification
304	Developmental Coaching changes Behavior by changing Frame of Reference
305	Chapter 9 Summary
306	Coaching Capability compared with ED Stage Spreads – Table 9.2
306	Vignette of the S3 other-dependent coach (S-3, S-3(4), S-3/4, S-4/3, S-4(3)) – Table 9.11
306	Vignette of the “S4 self-authoring coach” (S-4, S-4(5), S-4/5) – Table 9.11
306	Vignette of the “S5 self-aware coach” (S5/4) – Table 9.11
307	Adult S-3 to S-5 Meaning-Making – Table 9.12
307	S-2 Individuals Cannot Coach (or Impersonate a coach) – Table 9.13
308	Coaching Capability Levels Comparison: S3, “S4” and S-5/4 – Table 9.14
310	Caveat: Coaching Terminology: Stage Spreads vs Coaching Capability Levels
340	Coaching Capability Terminology (re “Self-authoring” and “Self-aware” coaching) – Table 9.15
311	Developmental Stage Progression (Table 6.11)
312	Range characteristics of Social-Emotional levels S-2 to S-5 – Table 9.17
312	Practice reflections
Ch.10	Chapter 10 (Part 1) Need Press Analysis (NP)	314
314	Part 1: Need/Press analysis
316	NP Behavioral assessment tool
317	NP Behavioral assessment outcome
318	NeedPress profile
318	The anatomy of Capacity: Self-conduct, Task Focus, Interpersonal Perspective
318	Psychological Assessment: NeedPress (NP) Profile
319	NP Managerial Norms SC, TA, IP – Table 10.2
320	Outcome interpretation: Self Conduct
321	Relationship between Horizontal and Vertical Scores
322	Practice reflections

	Chapter Subheadings
Ch.10	Chapter 10 (Part 2) Three Coaching and Mentoring Case Studies (NP)	322
324	Aspects of the Client's Profile to Consider
324	Format of case studies discussions
324	Purpose of the case studies
	For each case study: (325) Rick, (330) Bob, (336) Sarah. See below
325	Profile of presenting problem
326	Behavioral Report:
326	1. Client strengths
327	2. Client challenges
327	3. Summary of client's behavioral profile (coaching issues #1)
327	4. Developmentally focused summary (coaching issues #2)
328	5. Intake feedback
329	6. Coaching strategy
329	7. Expectable DBA Developmental [Risk-Potential] Balance Achieved
325	Case study #1: Rick RCP S-4(5) {3:7:3} SC Self Conduct
331	Case study #2: Bob RCP S-4(3) {3:4:7}; rewritable as 4 {7:6:1} TA Task Approach (Task Focus)
337	Case study #3: Sarah RCP S-4 {9:7:4}; rewritable as 4(3) {3:6:11} IP Interpersonal Perspective
Ch.11	Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics (See Appendix E: Addendum to Ch.11)	343
345	Overview
346	Social-emotional Team Typology
348	Unified Team
348	Downwardly Divided Team
348	Predictions for Each Type of Team
325	Downwardly Divided T3 Team: T3>T4
352	Team Coaching: From Coaching to Critical Facilitator
352	Coaches as Critical Facilitators
353	Coaching vs Process Consultations
354	Team Coaching: Interpersonal vs Task
354	Structure and Quality of Team Dialogue
355	Practice Reflections
Ch.12	An inkling of capability management	355
357	Why manage capability?
358	The power of aggregation
359	Competence versus capability
360	The balance of capability and accountability
361	Complexity architecture and capability architecture (Size of role/size of person)
335	Cognitive Grasp
362	Revisiting the upwardly divided T-3 team
363	Developmental spread
365	Capability metrics
365	Capability metric example
366	Steps required for establishing a capability metric
368	Capability profile
369	Results shown by the capability metric
369	Applied capability
370	Potential capability
370	Current potential capability vs. future potential capability
371	Concluding reflections
372	Competence – Capacity – Capability
372	The Dynamics of Size of Role vs. Size of Person

	Chapter Subheadings
373	Epilog 2005
375	Epilog Addendum 2011
App.	Appendices	376
A	Exercises - Questions on each of Chapters 1-9	377
B	Answers to Exercises in Appendix A	389
C	Social-emotional Interview Coding Sheet (ED)	396
D	Constructive Developmental Framework (CDF)	397
D	1. Overview	397
	2. Social–emotional development	398
	2.1 Stages of adult development	398
	2.2 The social–emotional profile of a person	398
	3. Cognitive development	399
	3.1 Eras of adult cognitive development	399
	3.2 Four classes of dialectical thought forms	400
	3.3 The cognitive profile of a person	400
	4. Link between social–emotional development and cognitive development	401
	5. Personality	401
	5.1 Psychogenic needs and press	401
	5.2 The personality profile of a person	401
	6. Applications	402
	6.1 Assessment of work capability	402
	6.2 Organizational talent management	402
	6.3 Coaching	402
	Appendix E: Addendum to chapter 11: Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics	403
E-11A	Part A: Typology, Aggregation, Upwardly and Downwardly Divided Teams	403
E-11B	Part B: “What ifs”, Presence Bias, RCPs, & COGs Split Teams - Two and Three person groups (Dyads & Triads)	435
E-11A	E: Part A: Typology, Upwardly/Downwardly Divided Teams (see Tables: 11A.1-20)	403
403	Team typology S3-S5
404	RCP 3-level Spreads and 4, 5, and 6-level (“multi-level”) spreads: Presence Bias ‘Rule’
408	Developmental Team Typology
409	The RCP and CoG criterion is the “Presence Bias”
409	Team Typology
410	Aggregation of team members ED scores
411	Divided Teams
411	Unified Teams
412	Team Center of Gravity (CoG)
412	Theory-in-use (TIU)
412	S2 groups (Instrumental developmental stage) do not have teams.
414	Misnomers
414	Team notation
414	Recap: Confirmation of team’s RCP CoG and Presence Bias
415	Commentary on the team’s rewritten S3, 3-level RCP CoG (“mean”)
416	Presence Bias, CoGs, Team Notation, and Numbers of Team Members
416	Presence Bias
416	CoGs
417	Numbers of Team Members
417	S4 Presence
418	RCP is a summary and does not disclose the underlying spread
419	No correlation between individual and team Presence Biases or CoGs

	Chapter Subheadings
420	Overview of Characteristics of Social-Emotional levels S-3 to S-5
420	Self Conduct (SC), Task Approach (TA) and Interpersonal Perspective (IP) –NP Norms
421	Developmental Typology of Teams interpreted (Predictions for developmentally different teams)
422	Two main contrasts are embedded in the above Typology:
423	Downwardly divided T-3 team: T3(S3>S4) Typology Prediction “fit”
425	Our upwardly divided T-3 team: T3(S3>S4) leadership and interpersonal relations
426	Leadership
427	Team coaching
429	Balanced Teams
430	Scoring method and team type designation (notation): T4 example
430	Unified Teams
430	Another type of team: Hybrid vs Unified?
430	Hybrid
432	Hybrid notation
432	Team CoG (Center of Gravity – based on substage spreads scores)
433	Effect on 5 Member Team CoG of expected change in Sarah’s CoG
434	Splitting odd and even numbers of members
434	Typology naming convention
E-11B	E: Part B – What-ifs, Presence Bias, RCP, CoG, Split Teams (See Tables 11B.21-22D2)		435
436	Team COG (team “mean”) vs. Notation [What if Sarah...?]
436	Team Centers of Gravity (CoGs)
437	Two and three person teams and groups within teams
437	Two-person team example: RCP, CoG, and Presence Bias
438	Two-person team 3-level CoG possibilities
439	Team splits for coaching
439	A1: Sam & Rick, dyad
440	A2: Katherine, Bob, Sarah (triad) - RCP & CoGs based on Presence Bias
441	B1 & B2: Alternative “two groups” strategies (original scores)
441	B1: Sam, Katherine, Sarah – triad
442	B2: Rick and Bob - dyad
442	C1 & C2: Alternative “two groups” strategies (original scores): Effect on Presence Bias
442	C1: Sam and Katherine - dyad
442	C2: Bob, Sarah, Rick -triad
443	D1 & D2: Alternative “two groups” strategies (original scores)
443	D1 – Sam and Sarah - dyad
443	D2 – Katherine, Bob, Rick – triad
444	Split Group Conclusions
444	Practice Reflections: Chapter 11
Backmatters
	F	Appendix F: Acronyms and Abbreviations	446
	G	Appendix G: Glossary	448
	H	Appendix H: Selected Bibliography	455
	I	Appendix I: Index (Key to MS-Word digital online “Find” capability)	458
	J	Appendix J: Changes in the 2 nd , 3 rd , and 4 th editions (2011, 2017, 2021)	459
	-	Publications by Otto Laske	460

Tables and Figures (Illustrations)

Fig.	Table	Introduction	27
I.1		Two dimensions of developmental assessment	32
	I.1	Changing orientations across adult stages [Completed in Table 1.1]	33
-	I.2	Constructive Developmental Framework (CDF)	35
I.2		The mental space of the Three Houses - Intervention Interview	36
	I.3	Table I.3: NeedPress (NP) Profile (Refer Table 10.1)	37
I.3		Trajectory of social-emotional development in adults	37
I.4		Capability metric	37
Chapter 1. You already know what adult development is			38
1.1		The helix of adult development	40
	1.1	Changing orientations across adult stages [Completes Table I.1]	42
	1.2	View of others and level of self insight across adult stages	43
	1.3	The sober reality of adult-developmental attainment	45
1.2		Vertical developmental dimension vs. horizontal behavioral dimension	47
1.3		Relationship of the three client perspectives	49
1.4		Three steps in working with clients	49
	1.4	How CDF components deliver empirical evidence	51
Chapter 2. What is your hypothesis as you listen?			53
	2.1	Parameters of acting from S-2	59
	2.2	Changing orientations across adult stages: S-2 to S-5 [1.1]	64
Chapter 3. Where is your client's center or gravity?			68
	3.1	Changing orientations across adult stages: S-3 to S-4 [1.1]	71
	3.2	Changing orientations across adult stages: S-4 to S-5 [1.1]	82
	3.3	What the journey to S-5 leads to	84
	3.4	Changing orientations across adult stages: The journey so far [1.1]	88
Chapter 4. From active to hypothesis-based listening			93
	4.1	Changing orientations across adult stages (4 of 7 orientations) [1.1]	98
	4.2	10 Developmental Interview Prompts (Social-Emotional)	107
	4.3	Developmental Interviewing Requirements	109
	4.4	Developmental Interviewing Learnings	110
	4.5	Empirical Evidence – in relation to Coaching Research	114
	4.6	Client Benefits	117
	4.7	Developmentally Deepened Consultation	118
Chapter 5. How spread out between risk and potential is your client?			119
	5.1	Changing orientations across adult stages: S-2 - Intermediate - S-3 [1.1]	120
5.1		Trajectory of social-emotional development in adults	121
	5.1x	Adapted ex5.1: Changing orientations - adult stages S-2 to S-3: View of Others	122
5.2		Intermediate developmental stages	123
5.3		Progression from S-2 to S-3	125
5.4		Computing the Risk-Clarity-Potential Index (RCP)	126
	5.2	Example: RCP Notation Scores and Center of Gravity	127
	5.3	Example: RCP range (spread) of substages' scores	128
	5.4	Example: RCP defining View-of –Others transition from S-2 to S-3	128
	5.5	Example RCP #1 – a spread of 5 stages/substages	129
	5.6	Example RCP #2- a spread of 5 stages/substages	129
	5.7	Example of large developmental spread	130
	5.8	Example of small (more typical) developmental spread	130
	5.9	Notation: Main stages and sub-stages of social-emotional development	133

Fig.	Table	Tables and Figures (Illustrations)
	5.10	Changing orientations across adult stages S2 to S-5 [1.1]	133
	5.11	a&b: How to summarize multi-level “raw scores” into a 3-level “quoted” RCP	134
5.5		Subject-Object Relations over the lifespan	135
Chapter 6. How to understand developmental conflict			137
	6.1	Changing orientations across adult stages S-2 to S-5 [1.1]	138
	6.2abc	Developmental stage spreads S2 to S5	139
	6.3	Changing orientations across adult stages S-2- to S-5: View of others [1.1]	140
	6.4	Range characteristics between S-2 and S-3	141
	6.4a-e	Levels S-2, S-2(3), S-2/3, S-3/2, S-3(2) characteristics	141-150
6.5		Generic notation of developmental progression (Kegan)	152
	6.5	Patterns of 16 substages	155
	6.6	Changing orientations across adult stages] S-3 →Intermediate → S-4 [1.1]	153
	6.7	Range characteristics between S-3 and S-4	154
	6.7a-e	Level S-3, S-3(4), S-3/4, S-4/3, S-4(3) characteristics	156-163
	6.8	Changing characteristics across adult stages S-4 →Intermediate →S-5	164
	6.8a	Developmental stance from S-4 (Self-authored) to S-5 (Self-aware)	164
	6.9	Range characteristics between S-4 and S-5	167
	6.9a-e	Levels S-4, S-4(5), S-4/5, S5/4, S-5(4)	168-173
	6.10	Level S-5 characteristics	176
6.6		Subject-Object Relations over the lifespan	178
	6.11	Developmental Stage Spread Progression	179
	6.12	Range characteristics for social-emotional levels S-2 to S-5	180
Chapter 7. The structure of powerful conversations			181
7.1		Distance of 3 generic intervention processes - Client's train of thought	194
	7.1	Developmental Interviewing Summary	197
	7.2	How Not to Interview (Interviewing Gone Wrong) 11 Critiques of Example #1	199
	7.3	How Not to Interview #2: Critique of Example #2	202-4
	7.4	Adult Stages Spreads S-2 to S-5	205
	7.5	Range estimate characteristics for a client S-3 to S-3/4	208
	7.6	RCP (Risk-Clarity/Potential Index) Scores Spread Example S-3(4) {5:8:3}.	209
	7.7	Developmental Listening Summary	210
	7.8	Range characteristics for Social-Emotional levels S-2 to S-5 (Table 6.4 copy)	210
Chapter 8. How to test your developmental knowledge			212
	8.1	The Three Houses differentiated according to Center of Gravity	215
	8.2	Example of RCP scores: S-3(4) {5:8:3}	216
	8.3	Suggested S-3(4) to S-4(5) range for interview excerpt	222
	8.3a	Suggested S-4(5) ceiling of interview	223
	8.4	Format of social-emotional stage coding sheet headings: See Appendix C	237
	8.5	Example of RCP scores S-3(4) {5:8:3} [copy of 8.2]	239
	8.6	Completed Social Emotional coding sht., interviewer's & reviewers questions	240
	8.7	Interviewee's RCP S-4/3 scored stages and score weights	242
	8.8	Five stage RCP rewritten as 3 stage RCP: S-4/3 {3:5:5} rewritten as S-4(3) {8:3:2}	244
	8.9	Characteristics of social-emotional levels S-2 to S-5	246
	8.10	Questions for scoring social-emotional levels S-2 to S-5	247
	8.11	Comparison of Interviewer and Reviewer's questions (Table 8.11re Table 8.6)	255
8.1		The mental space of the three houses: Self, Task, Organizational	260

Fig.	Table	Tables and Figures (Illustrations)
		Chapter 9. What it all means for coaching	261
		Section 1: Developmental Ideas and Practices	264
9.1		Intersection of Vertical/Agentic and Horizontal/Ontic Dimensions	266
9.2		RCP dimensions and Center of Gravity	267
	9.1	Changing orientations across adult stages S-2 to S-5	268
		Section 2: What the Developmental Approach means	269
	9.2	Coaching Capability Levels [This table reproduced elsewhere under different labels]	269
9.3		Three distinct coaching levels S-3, S-4, S-5	270
	9.2 _{copy}	Copy of Table 9.2: No evidence of Coaching Capability at S2 or beyond S5/4	270
	9.3	Seven coaching research hypotheses	271
	9.4	Overall distribution of adult-developmental attainment	281
	9.5	7-step model of developmental thinking in professional interventions	282
	9.6	Typology of coach-client relationships (Predicted coaching effect)	287
9.4		Intersection of vertical and horizontal developmental dimensions [I.1]	266
		Section 3: Benefits of the Developmental Approach for the Client	290
	9.7	Table 9.7 Client Reorientation – Major Developmental Coaching Issues	290
	9.8	Developmental coaching expectations	291
9.5		The flow of developmental coaching	292
		Section 4: The Contribution of Developmental Coaching	296
	9.9	Seven coaching research hypotheses – developmental topics list	296
	9.10	Seven coaching research hypotheses – detail [Copy of Table 9.3]	297
9.6		Developmental Coaching with CDF changes Frame of Reference	304
		Ch.9 Summary	305
	9.2R	Recap: Table 9.2: Coaching Capability Levels compared with Stage Spreads	306
	9.11	Coach vignettes: Other-dependent S-3, Self-authored S-4, Self-aware S-5	306
	9.12	The three main levels of meaning-making determine communication	307
	9.13	Six Reasons Why S-2 Individuals Cannot Coach	307
	9.14	Coaching Capability Levels Comparison S3 , “S4” (ie S-4, S-4(5), S-4/5), & S5/4	308
	9.15	Coaching Terminology: Stage Spreads vs Coaching Capability Levels	310
	9.16	Developmental Stage Spread Progression (copy of Table 6.11)	311
	9.17	Caveat -: Range characteristics -Social-Emotional levels S-2 to S-5 (copy of 6.12)	312
		Chapter 10, Part 1 : Need Press Analysis	314
10.1		NeedPress: Self Conduct, Task Focus, Interpersonal Perspective	318
	10.1	NP Empirical Data Scores Example for SC, TA, IP - 15 items + abcde summary	318
	10.2	NP Managerial Norms: Self Conduct, Task Focus, and Interpersonal Perspective	319
10.2		NP Outcomes Self Conduct (SC) Example	320
	10.3	NP Managerial Norms: (SC) Self Conduct Norms + Example Scores	321
10.3		Intersection of Vertical and Horizontal developmental dimensions [I.1]	321
		Chapter 10. Part 2: Three coaching and mentoring case studies (Rick, Bob, Sarah)	323
		Case Study 1: Self Conduct - Rick (SC)	323
10.4		Rick's Self Conduct Scores vs Norms SC	325
	10.4	Rick's Self Conduct Behavioral Findings (SC) (copy of 10.2)	326
	10.5	Self-conduct summary: Rick's SC Scores vs Norms (Refer Table 10.3)	326
	10.6	NP Empirical Data Scores – Rick (SC)	326
		Case Study 2: Task Approach – Bob (TA)	331
10.5		Bob's Task Approach (Task Focus) Scores vs Norms TA	331
	10.7	Task Approach summary: Bob's TA Scores vs Norms	331
	10.8	Bob's Task Approach (Task Focus) Behavioral Findings TA	332
	10.9	Bob's RCP – Original and rewritten	333

Fig.	Table	Tables and Figures (Illustrations)
	10.10	NP Empirical Data Scores –Bob (TA)	334
		Case Study 3: Interpersonal Perspective – Sarah (IP)	337
10.6		Sarah’s Interpersonal Perspective Scores vs Norms IP	337
	10.11	Interpersonal Perspective Summary: Sarah’s IP Scores vs Norms	337
	10.12	Sarah’s Interpersonal Perspective Behavioral Findings IP	338
	10.13	Sarah’s RCP– original and rewritten	340
	10.14a	Social-Emotional (ED) Stages Scores – Sarah and Composite	343
	10.14b	Composite NP Empirical Data Scores – SC, TA, IP: Rick, Bob, Sarah	343
Chapter 11. Developmental issues of Team Dynamics			344
	11.1	Social-Emotional Team Typology	346
	11.2	Developmental Typology of Teams Interpreted	347
	See also E-11A E-11B	Addendum Ch. 11: Appendix E: Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics Part A - Teams: Typology, Aggregation, Upwardly/Downwardly Divided Part B - Teams: What ifs, Two and Three person teams (Dyads & Triads)	405 435
Chapter 12. Capability Management			356
12.1		The competence/capability distinction	360
	12.1	Two basic organizational architectures: Complexity and Capability	360
	12.2	Capability description of Stratum III: Size of Person v Size of Role	361
	12.3	Accountability distribution of representative mini-sample of managers	363
	12.4	Distribution of Strata for mini-sample	364
12.2		Steps in establishing and using a capability metric	367
12.3		Capability metric for a representative sample	368
12.4		Competence - grounded in Capability - filtered through Capacity	372
	12.5	The dynamics of size of role and size of person	372
Appendices			376
	A	Exercises Chapters 1-9 (Not a table, but 13 pages of questions)	377
	B	Answers to Questions in Appendix A	389
	B1	SOI Subject/Object Interview Coding Sheet – completed – CH8. Q#11 answer	393
	B2	RCP (Risk/Clarity/Potential Index) completed for Ch.8 Q#11 answer in B1	393
	C1	Social-emotional Interview Coding Sheet – blank form	396
	D	Constructive Developmental Framework (CDF)	371
	D1	Table 11.28 - CDF Dialectical Moments Equivalence: MELD - CPRT - Cognitive	400
	D2	Table 11.29 NP Inventory – Self-Conduct, Task Approach, Interpersonal Perspective	401
	E	Addendum to Ch.11, Teams: Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics	403
Appendix E. Addendum to Ch.11, Teams: Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics Part A: Typology, Aggregation, Upwardly and Downwardly Divided Teams			405
	11A.1	Team members’ original RCPs and Team Mean RCP	405
	11A.1a	Team RCP, CoG, & Presence Bias (original individual 3-level RCPs)	405
	11A.2	Team members’ original Spreads, Clusters, RCP, Team Mean RCP	406
	11A.2a	Multi-level raw-scores compressed to 3-level RCPs – Kat, Bob, Sarah	407
	11A.3	T3 Rewritten RCPs and Team RCP & CoG (“Mean”) and Presence Bias	407
	11A.3a	T3 Team: S3 and S4 spreads aggregate totals (40 S3+33 S4 = 73 aggregate)	407
	11A.4	Scorable stages S3, 4 and S-5 spreads (excludes S2)	410
	11A.5	Notation of upwardly or downwardly divided teams	411
	11A.6	Developmental Team Typology S3-S5	412
	11A.7	S2 and S3 stage minimum requirements of a T3(S3>S2) team	413
	11A.8	Variations: Compressing the 6-level team spread to a 3-level aggregate	415
	11A.9	Multi-levels compressed to 3-level RCPs – Kat, Bob, Sarah	415
	11A.3 copy	T3 Rewritten RCPs, Team RCP & CoG (“Mean”) & Presence Bias (copy)	418

Fig.	Table	Tables and Figures (Illustrations)
	11A.2a copy	Multi-levels compressed to 3-level RCPs – Kat, Bob, Sarah (copy/excerpt)	418
	11A.10	Individual Presence Bias in Team 6-level Spread	419
	11A.10a	Individual and Team Presence Bias in 3-level RCP	419
	11A.11	Characteristics of Social-Emotional levels S-3 to S-5	420
	11A.12	Self Conduct, Task Focus, & Interpersonal Perspective – NP Norms	420
	11A.13	Developmental Typology of Teams interpreted	421
	11A.14	Four-member team without Sam CEO- Presence Bias and RCP	424
	11A.15	Team: Rick & Sam - Presence Bias and RCP	425
	11A.16	Five-member team - Individual and team Presence Bias and RCPs	426
	11A.17	Four team members with S4 presences: Alternative Group CoGs	427
	11A.11 copy	Characteristics of Social-Emotional levels S-3 to S-5 (copy)	429
	11A.17 excerpt	Four-member team (excludes Sam, CEO) – CoGs vs. Presence Bias (excerpt)	431
	11A.18	S3 CoG but S4 Presence Bias [Question: Is it a “hybrid”?]	431
	11A.3 excerpt	T3(S3>S4) Upwardly Divided Team (excerpts)	433
	11A.19	Expected shift in Sarah’s RCP and CoG	433
	11A.20	Expected shift in 5 member team aggregate substage scores re Sarah	433
Appendix E. Addendum to Ch.11, Teams: Developmental Issues of Team Dynamics
Part B: Teams: “What ifs” (Presence Bias, RCPs, & COGs), Split Teams, Dyads, Triads			)435
	11B.21	Five-member Team RCP - What if Sarah’s RCP was S-4{9:7:4}?	436
	11B.22	Team COG possibilities (Centers of Gravity) in 3-level RCPs	436
	11B.22a	Hypothetical two-person team Presence Bias & RCP COG– dyad example	438
	11B.22b	Two-person team individual and team assessment possibilities - dyad	438
	11B.22c	Two-person team assessment 3-level COG possibilities example - dyad	439
	11B.22A1	Team A1 – Sam and Rick - dyad	440
	11B.22A2	Team A2 COG determined by Presence Bias - Kat, Bob and Sarah – triad	440
	11B.22A2a	Presence Bias – Individual and Team A2 – Kat, Bob, Sarah – triad	441
	11B.22B1	Team B1 - Sam, Katherine, and Sarah - triad	441
	11B.22B2	Team B2 – Rick and Bob -dyad	442
	11B.22C1	Team C1 – Sam and Katherine - dyad	442
	11B.22C2	Team C2 – Bob, Sarah, and Rick - triad	442
	11B.22D1	Team D1 – Sam and Sarah - dyad	443
	11B.22D2	Team D2 – Katherine, Bob, and Rick - triad	443
Backmatters
	F	Acronyms and Abbreviations	446
	G	Glossary	448
	H	Selected Bibliography	455
	I	Index	458
	J	Changes in the 2011 and 2017 editions	459
	-	Publications by Otto Laske	460